

Time	Topic	Format	Speakers
June 6 (4 – 6pm)	What is precision medicine? What value can precision medicine (PM) bring? Status quo of the infrastructural development in Hong Kong (Genome Project)	Lecture, Q&A session	Prof. John Kao, Head of BioMedical Technology Cluster, HKSTP; Chair Professor of Translational Medical Engineering, HKU Prof. TY Leung, Chairman of Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, CUHK; Member of Steering Committee on Genome Project, HKSAR Moderator: Lawrence Wong
11 Jun (4 – 6 pm)	How to facilitate its progress and development on PM? How to gear up the supports for commercial applications?	5 mins Perspective brief for each speaker, Panel discussion	Dr. Alexander Chiu, Medical Director, Health and Employee Benefits of AXA Hong Kong and Macau (Insurance and the healthcare system) Dr. Ronald Li, Director &amp; Professor, MWLC for Reparative Medicine HK, Karolinska Institute (Research and development) Prof. Ian Wong, Head of Department of Pharmacology &amp; Pharmacy, HKU (Infrastructure/Data) Dr. Daniel Thurley, General Manager, Roche HK Limited (Pharma) (TBC) (startup and investment) Moderator: Lawrence Wong
June 28 (9am – 12pm)	What are the situational updates on PM framework worldwide/APAC? How to develop regulatory framework for PM? What are the foreseeable challenges for RA operations?	Lecture, panel discussion	Baker McKenzie’s legal expert in Life Sciences Global Mr. Lot Chan, Chief Pharmacist, Drug Office – what Hong Kong has done to set up regulatory framework (TBC) Pharma’s perspective (the areas concern of pharma industry) Moderator: Sabrina Chan